

AGENDA OF MEETING

Date: Wednesday, 22 June 2005

Present: Alton Tangedal Thesis Advisor
Kurt Dietrich Thesis Candidate

Purpose of Meeting: Weekly Progress Meeting

ITEM / DISCUSSION

27.1 Curriculum Items

- Mathematics and Design Elements will be turned over to Educators and Editor by 29 June 2005

27.2 Educator Review

- Date for review is June 29, 2005 @ 8:30 a.m.
- A further request was issued to seek an earlier date.

27.3 Functional Programming Drawings

- Site study completed.
- Photographs completed.

27.4 Presentation Discussion

- Kurt is to respond with proposed date and time after meeting with Educators

27.5 Building Design

- Preliminary site planning underway
- Preliminary building planning underway
- Preliminary elevation and sectional studies underway
- Stone and Steel:
  - Stone composed of the base, connection to ground, related to geography and prairie rock formations (stone piles, stone boats, etc). stone elements within the facility to bring natural warmth and solidity, allowance for texture and variation of stone as teaching tool.
  - Steel: rising out of stone, mankind's contribution to the building process, encased in glass (a sand/stone composite material), exposed connections and details to be used in the teaching environment.
  - Atmosphere: light, water, air; vision, movement, activity, opportunities.
  - Connection to each section of the curriculum to be completed after final formatting of Design Elements.